RE: FOIA Request #CFPB-2018-550-F

April 25, 2019

Mr. Austin Evers
American Oversight
1030 15th Street NW, Suite B255
Washington, DC 20005

Via email: foia@americanoversight.org

Dear Mr. Evers:

This letter is in final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated May 14, 2018. Your request sought:

> All records reflecting communications (including emails, email attachments, text messages, messages on messaging platforms (such as Slack, GChat or Google Hangouts, Lync, Skype, or WhatsApp), telephone call logs, calendar invitations/entries, meeting notices, meeting agendas, informational material, draft legislation, talking points, any handwritten or electronic notes taken during any oral communications, summaries of any oral communications, or other materials) between (a) Brian Johnson, Kirtsen Sutton Mork, or Hallee Morgan and (b) any member of the Financial Services Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives or any staff employed by that committee or by the personal office of Representative Jeb Hensarling, Representative Ann Wagner, Representative Blaine Luetkemeyer, Representative Patrick McHenry, or Representative Sean Duffy.

A search of our Office of the Director for documents responsive to your request produced a total of 1,375 pages. Of those pages, I have determined that 1032 pages of the records are granted in full, 341 pages are granted in part, and 2 pages are withheld in full pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5), (b)(6).

FOIA Exemption 5 protects from disclosure those inter- or intra-agency documents that are normally privileged in the civil discovery context. The three most frequently invoked privileges are the deliberative process privilege, the attorney work-product privilege, and the attorney-client privilege. After carefully reviewing the responsive documents, I determined that portions of the responsive documents qualify for protection under the:

- Deliberative Process Privilege

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The deliberative process privilege protects the integrity of the deliberative or decision-making processes within the agency by exempting from mandatory disclosure opinions, conclusions, and recommendations included within inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda or letters. The release of this internal information would discourage the expression of candid opinions and inhibit the free and frank exchange of information among agency personnel.

FOIA Exemption 6 exempts from disclosure personnel or medical files and similar files the release of which would cause a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This requires a balancing of the public's right to disclosure against the individual's right to privacy. The privacy interests of the individuals in the records you have requested outweigh any minimal public interest in disclosure of the information. Any private interest you may have in that information does not factor into the aforementioned balancing test.

If you have any questions regarding the responses or decisions set forth above, you should contact Brian J. Field, Assistant United States Attorney, 555 4th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20530.

For inquiries concerning your request, please reference your FOIA request number above and contact our FOIA Public Liaison via email at FOIA@consumerfinance.gov or by phone at 1-855-444-FOIA (3642).

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, MD 20740; e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.

Sincerely,

Danielle Duvall Adams
Acting FOIA Manager
Operations Division

Cc:	Mork, Kirsten
Subject:	RE: questions

Brian:

Your last day on payroll was November 30, 2017.

As far as Committee-specific post-employment rules … these items are from our Committee handbook …

Confidentiality

During your employment with the Committee, you will be exposed to certain information of a sensitive or confidential nature. It is critical that confidentiality be maintained by all employees who work for the Committee, that no disclosure of confidential information be made to anyone except as required in the performance of work, and that no use be made of confidential information for personal gain or advantage, or for the harm of others either during or after your employment with the Committee.

Examples of sensitive or confidential information may include information designated as classified or secret by the government, matters involving the personal or professional lives of Committee employees or the Chairman or other Committee Members, internal legislative or political strategy, personal information regarding constituents, and internal operations of the Committee, among others.

Employees of the Committee have access to confidential and sensitive information and, as a result, have a fiduciary duty to the Committee and the U.S. House of Representatives to hold in confidence such information in accordance with the Code of Ethics in Government Service found in the House Ethics Manual. Under that section, employees are precluded from using information coming to them confidentially in the performance of their governmental duties as a means for making private profit. Accordingly, it is the Committee's policy that staff shall not publish any article, book, transcript, or other written piece or grant an interview or act as an advisor on any publication relating to their employment without the prior approval of the Staff Director. Prior to agreeing to any speaking engagement relating to their employment (including without limitation participation on panels or conferences), staff shall obtain the prior approval of the Staff Director.

Strict observance of this policy by all employees is of great importance to the effective operation of the Committee. Violations of this policy may result in discipline, up to and including immediate termination.

If you discover a violation of this policy, you have the responsibility to notify your supervisor immediately.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Termination of Employment

The Committee desires that your employment in the House be a rewarding and successful experience. However, it is conceivable that circumstances may arise that will make it advisable for you to end your employment with the Committee.

Should you decide to terminate your employment with the Committee voluntarily, you are requested, but not required, to provide adequate notice. Adequate notice is customarily two weeks, and may be longer depending on your particular responsibilities. The request that you provide notice of your intent to resign is not intended to alter the fact that either you or the Committee is entitled to terminate your employment relationship at any time without notice.

Each employee must return all House property, including his or her I.D. card and keys. Failure to do so may result in the withholding of your final paycheck. Employees who have group medical and life insurance will continue to receive coverage during the period in which the employee remains on the payroll as provided for by the individual employee's health or life insurance policies and applicable federal laws. Employees should contact the Office of Payroll and Benefits at x5-1435 with any questions regarding benefits.

Upon termination certain employees are prohibited from lobbying certain Members of Congress or their staff for a period of at least one (1) year. For more information, contact the Committee on Ethics at x5-7103.

References

References for former or current employees of the Committee are to be given only by the Staff Director and only in accordance with the Hatch Act Reform Amendments of 1993 and the laws and rules highlighted in the October 1, 1998 “Pink Sheet” created by the Committee on Standards. Employees should contact the Staff Director or the Committee on Ethics at x5-7103 with any questions.

Hi Kirsten and Angela,
It was great seeing you both last night. I am undergoing a recusal review over here at CFPB and have been asked to track down two questions:

1. What was (or is) my last day on the House payroll?

2. Other than House Ethics rules, are there any additional Committee-specific post-employment policies? Evidently some committees have additional requirements.

Do you happen to know the answers to these questions, or know who I can call?

Thanks very much,
-Brian

We found your official passport inside the desk where you sat in 2129.

I called our passport people and they said to find out if you have use to have an official passport. If so, we can do a letter to them informing them of your new location and then your agency would do a letter request the transfer, and then the passport could be used in your new position.

If you have no use for it, it can be turned in and cancelled.

Mr. Barr wants to know if this language would apply to payday lenders – it doesn't appear so and he wants it too. He wants the CFPB to have control over both banks and non banks here. He said he spoke to Ms. Kraninger about this and she supposedly agreed.

Brian and Kirsten,

I look forward to working with you in the next Congress. I like and respect both of you, and I have heard nothing but good things about you from your former colleagues on Chairman Hensarling's staff. I'm sure that we will work well together.

I recognize that you did not have to come to the Hill to participate in yesterday's meeting, but I appreciate that you did. Thank you. We started a productive conversation. I will continue this conversation with staff from the Litigation & Oversight and Legislative Affairs offices early next year. I hope to work with these teams to understand how best to craft document requests to ensure that the Committee receives all that it needs to fulfill its oversight responsibilities while minimizing the burden on Bureau staff.

I have included Catherine on this e-mail because I understand that she should be aware of any conversations between the Hill and Bureau leadership. I've also included Charlie, my counterpart on the majority staff.

Thank you again for participating in yesterday's meeting.

Subject: Tribal Sovereignty and the CFPB

Kirsten – great seeing you yesterday at HFSC. Per my boss's conversation, I wanted to connect you with Greg Porter, who represents several tribes that have concerns related to CFPB lending rules and tribal sovereignty. The Congresswoman hopes a meeting can be arranged to meet tribal leaders, hear their concerns and perspectives, and find solutions that create economic opportunities in Indian Country.

Greg – you probably know Kirsten from HFSC, but she now serves as chief of staff at the CFPB. She is the best!

Hope you two can connect on this issue. Let me know if you need anything else from us.

Subject: Update on the Bureau's plans for the Consumer Advisory Board

Dear Advisory Board member,

This week the Bureau is launching a revised approach to engage external stakeholders.

Today we begin the process of transforming the Bureau's Stakeholder Outreach and Engagement work, which includes transitioning from former modes of outreach, to a new strategy to increase high quality feedback. The strategy reflects the many comments received during the external engagements request for information.

The Bureau will continue to fulfill its statutory obligations to convene the Consumer Advisory Board and will also continue to provide forums – for the Community Bank Advisory Council and the Credit Union Advisory Council. The Bureau will continue these advisory groups and will use the 2018 application and selection process to reconstitute the current advisory groups with new, smaller memberships. Smaller memberships will ensure streamlined discussions about the Bureau's policy priorities and needs in a productive manner.

In addition to the advisory groups, the Bureau will increase its strategic outreach to encourage intimate conversations, sharing information, and developing partnerships focused on consumers in underserved communities and geographies. These engagements will include regional town halls, roundtable discussions at the Bureau's Headquarters with consumer finance experts and representatives, regional roundtables, and regular national calls.

We don't plan on having any additional meetings until the appointment of new board and council members; until such time, existing advisory board and council members may continue to serve their existing terms. As we seek to wind up the current advisory board and councils program and shift to launch new advisory groups in the fall of 2018, we want to ensure that we continue to engage you as valued members of the advisory board and leaders in your community. This is especially important during this time as we collect feedback through our Call to Evidence/Request For Information initiative (RFI). Over the next few months, we will work with you through staff to convene subcommittee meetings to ensure that we have this important feedback, which will inform the Bureau's RFIs.

As with any transition, we know that the past few months has involved a series of shifts to board and council operations; and, today's announcement is also an additional shift. We appreciate your patience and commitment to engaging with the Bureau. Your participation to date reflects a true commitment to public service and ensures that the Bureau's policy making has had the benefit of your perspectives and experiences on issues important to consumers across the country.

On behalf of the Acting Director, my team, and my colleagues in the Division of External Affairs and around the Bureau, we cannot thank you enough for the time and energy that you have volunteered during your tenure as advisory board members.

Best,

June 7, 2018

Mr. Emmanuel Manon
Office of Consumer Advisory Board and Councils
Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection

Washington, DC 20552

Dear Mr. Manon:

I write to recommend the appointment of Paul Adamski to the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection's Community Banker Advisory Council. Mr. Adamski will bring a strong rural voice to the Council with a focus on making the mortgage regulatory process more consumer oriented.

Mr. Adamski's career in the Financial Services industry started while he was attending the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point as a personal lines underwriter for Sentry Insurance. Upon graduation he began working at what was American Savings and Loan in 1974. He continued to serve the people of Wisconsin in various roles, eventually becoming the President and CEO for the Pineries Bank in Stevens Point, Wisconsin.

Mr. Adamski has also served the State of Wisconsin as the Finance Director for the City of Stevens Point and as Deputy Commissioner of Savings and Loans for the State of Wisconsin. His knowledge of the industry from both a private sector and government perspective will provide a great voice for rural community banks, and more importantly, consumers.

Mr. Adamski's service on the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and Wisconsin Savings College Board further exemplifies his commitment to the people of Wisconsin and the Community Banking industry.

I am confident that Mr. Adamski, with his intellect, his experience, and his deep understanding of the challenges to community banking, would be an excellent addition to Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection's Community Banker Advisory Council, and I strongly urge his appointment.

Sincerely,

Congresswoman Sinema Introduction

- I had the sincere pleasure of getting to know Congresswoman Kyrsten Sinema over the five years I spent doing Member Services at the House Financial Services Committee.
- So I speak from experience when I say that the best and most accurate way to describe Congresswoman Sinema is as a "force of nature."
- I'm going to attempt to finish the rest of this introduction without feeling like a complete under achiever.
- Remarkably, Congresswoman Sinema has a Masters Degree in social work, as well as a law degree and a Ph.D in Justice Studies. Oh, and she just finished her MBA.
- She has also authored two books:
    - The first titled "Unite and Conquer" on how to work with others to achieve meaningful change despite difference in values, interests and objections; and
    - The other on the Rwandan genocide ("Who Must Die in Rwanda's Genocide? The State of Exception Realized)
- Not only is she one of the most bipartisan Members of Congress, she also happens to be the first openly bisexual Member of Congress.
- Serving her third term as a Member of the U.S. House of Representatives, Congresswoman Sinema continues her service on the House Financial Services Committee as a passionate and knowledgeable leader, who isn't afraid to work across the aisle, to pass legislation to improve government, and ensure there is opportunity for all who are willing to work hard and play by the rules.
- (b)(6)

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(b)(6)

- (b)(6)

- During her time in Congress, Congresswoman Sinema has advocated for many issues, including veterans' healthcare, children's healthcare, education, job creation and training, and a strong government role in providing a social safety net.

- Congresswoman Sinema, thank you so much for joining us today. I am honored to welcome you to the Bureau in celebration of Pride Month.

[You lead applause]

- And without further ado, I will turn the program over to Acting Director Mick Mulvaney.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We write to bring your attention to a hearing held in the House Financial Services Subcommittee on Financial Institutions and Consumer Credit on June 26, 2018. The hearing, entitled "International and Domestic Implications of De-Risking" served to highlight the ongoing issues driving the dangerous trend of de-risking, not focused exclusively on U.S. financial institutions and their customers but also the serious impact it's having around the world.

During the course of this hearing, Subcommittee members received testimony from experts from a variety of fields and areas of expertise. While the backgrounds of the witnesses were diverse, the themes of their testimony were strikingly similar. Each told a similar story of burdensome regulation and heightened compliance expectations as a primary driver in account terminations throughout the United States and abroad.

Among the witnesses were a representative from the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), whose work has shown an increasing level of difficulty for consumers and businesses at the southern U.S. border in accessing banking services. The banks surveyed by GAO reported heightened Bank Secrecy Act and anti-money laundering (BSA/AML) compliance risks as a major challenge in dealing with certain customers.[1] We also received testimony from The Honorable Sue Eckert of the Center for a New American Security who reported that the BSA/AML regime has rendered some charities and non-profit organizations unable to deliver vital humanitarian aid and development assistance.[2] The Subcommittee also received testimony from Sally Yearwood, Executive Director of Caribbean Central American Action who stated that this trend is destabilizing Caribbean economies, threatening trade, and creating security concerns.[3]

PRINTED ON RECYCLED PAPER

As we understand it, the BSA/AML regime is intended to foster collaborative relationships between financial institutions and federal banking agencies and law enforcement. However, we fear the regulatory regime is negatively impacting our ability to efficiently and successfully combat illicit financial activity. Instead of fostering collaborative relationships, the modern BSA/AML framework, along with the other regulatory drivers of de-risking, push more people and more money into the shadows.

We believe it to be in the best interest of consumers and legitimate businesses around the world, as well as U.S. law enforcement and federal financial regulators, to foster an environment that ends de-risking and allows banking relationships to exist in what is the world's safest and most highly regulated financial system. It is imperative that, working with Congress, law enforcement, and Federal regulatory agencies, you lead the discussions necessary to curb this trend. We encourage you to use your position to drive meaningful reform that will better serve our national security interests without unnecessarily limiting financial services to consumers, businesses, nonprofit organizations, and foreign jurisdictions around the world.

We look forward to your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

July 3, 2018

The Honorable Mick Mulvaney
Acting Director
Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection
1700 G Street, NW
Washington, DC 20522

Dear Director Mulvaney:

I am writing regarding the June 21, 2018 ruling by Chief District Judge Loretta A. Preska of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York finding the structure of the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection to be unconstitutional. In the decision, Judge Preska found that due to the Dodd-Frank Act's creation of the Bureau under a single director that can only be fired by cause, the Bureau should not exist.

As former Chairman of the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee of the House Financial Services Committee, I witnessed firsthand how the independence from both Congress and the President has helped insulate the Bureau from public scrutiny. To that end, it was both appropriate and necessary for the President to take a position that the Acting Director be removable at will by the President.

I have long contended that the Bureau's structure allowing for independence of the Director, and Bureau itself, from the President is unconstitutional. Rather than contest or appeal the decision of Judge Preska, which is non-binding beyond parties to the case, the Administration should embrace the decision as it has argued in litigation the unconstitutionality of the Bureau.

Due to the unconstitutionality, all operations being conducted by the Bureau should be halted until Congress is given substantial time to perform its legislative duty and organize the Bureau in a constitutional structure.

Sincerely,

SEAN P DUFFY

Hensarling Supports Bureau Acting Deputy Director Pick

WASHINGTON – Financial Services Committee Chairman Jeb Hensarling (R-TX) released the following statement after Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (the Bureau) Acting Director Mick Mulvaney announced that Brian Johnson has been selected for the role of Acting Deputy Director:

"I'm pleased to hear that Brian Johnson has been selected today to serve as the Bureau's Acting Deputy Director. Brian's deep understanding of the law and the Bureau's structure was an invaluable asset to me during his time at the Financial Services Committee. There is no one who understands the Bureau more or who is more committed to ensuring the Bureau lives up to its mission of truly protecting consumer access to financial choice and freedom."

Dear Chairman Powell, Vice Chairman Quarles, Acting Director Mulvaney and Chairman McWatters:

I write today to express my continued concern surrounding Operation Choke Point, an Obama Administration initiative that sought to divorce licensed, legally operating businesses from the financial services industry. Unfortunately, initiatives such as Operation Choke Point have permitted personal opinion and bias to drive a wedge between legitimate businesses and the financial services they need to survive.

For approximately five years, Congress has been aware of and examined Operation Choke Point and the dangerous trend of de-risking seen throughout the financial services space. Previous documentation obtained by committees in the U.S. House of Representatives have tied Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) leadership to Operation Choke Point, though the extent to which agency officials were involved has only come to light since the October 12, 2018 release of the motion for summary judgment in the case of Advance America et al. v. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Officials from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) have categorically denied any knowledge of or participation in Operation Choke Point. The legal documents released October 12th demonstrate that senior OCC officials indeed had knowledge and direct participation in this abusive initiative and, as a result, have blatantly misled Congress.

Senior financial regulators have not only allowed but encouraged this behavior during their tenure. FDIC Washington staff threatened agency regional directors with termination over financial institution engagement with payday lenders. One of those individuals, then-Atlanta Regional Director Thomas Dujenski, discussed the fact that he "literally can not stand payday lending," going on to describe the activities of the industry as "abusive" and "fundamentally wrong."[1] According to the documentation, he reported this and any other actions related to payday lending to Mark Pearce, who serves as the FDIC Director for the Division of Depositor and Consumer Protection. One must question whether or not Mr. Pearce's division only offers protection to depositors that are attuned to his personal morals and beliefs.

Anthony Lowe, who was at the time the regional director in the FDIC's Chicago office, instructed his staff to use "all available means, including verbal recommendations, to strongly encourage [banks] to refrain from any activities that provide assistance to the business activities of [payday] lending." Mr. Lowe now serves as FDIC Ombudsman, supervising the office that serves as "a confidential, neutral, and independent source of information and assistance to anyone affected by the FDIC in its regulatory, resolution, receivership, or asset disposition activities."[2] It is undoubtedly a safe assumption that the services offered by the FDIC Office of the Ombudsman extend only to those entities with which the ombudsman has no personal objection.

It is now well documented that the OCC and FDIC engaged with predecessors and the senior staff, many of whom remain in place today, fostered a culture where political opinion and personal belief trumped the agencies missions to protect customers of and promote safety and soundness in the banking system. OCC staff made the conscious decision, in conjunction with leadership at the FDIC, to use "moral suasion" to "suggest strongly that [banks] re-evaluate payday lending." Comptroller Curry was undoubtedly aware that payday lenders had been specifically targeted, not based on evidence of wrongdoing but rather on a personal determination that a certain industry or product were distasteful. This decision appears to have been coordinated between Deputy Comptroller for Compliance Policy Grovetta Gardineer and FDIC Director for the Division of Depositor and Consumer Protection Mark Pearce.[3]

Much like the OCC, each of your predecessors spent several years denying any knowledge of or involvement in Operation Choke Point. I fear that, given the evidence that has come to light this month, Operation Choke Point and the de-risking seen throughout the banking sector are systemic problems and not isolated to one or two regulatory agencies. This matter requires an immediate and thorough investigation. For that reason, I urge you to work internally to determine whether or not any member of your respective staffs had any knowledge of or in any way participated in Operation Choke Point or any similar initiative.

Such a blatant abuse of power should never be tolerated. Members of Congress and the American public have lost confidence in the career bureaucrats at the FDIC and OCC. I appreciate the important role each of you will play in ensuring that confidence in the financial regulatory space is restored, and look forward to discussing the results of your independent investigations in the coming weeks.

Hi Charla,

Congrats on your upcoming transition to the Majority! Please let me know if I can help in any way. Jeb's transition to Chair was a bit different because we were already in the majority at the time, but I worked for Roskam, Price and Jeb in the minority and made a number of observations regarding transitions, best practices, etc. In addition, we changed the designee structure a bit. Zero pressure, but here if you ever want to chat!

Brian and Kirsten,

I look forward to working with you in the next Congress. I like and respect both of you, and I have heard nothing but good things about you from your former colleagues on Chairman Hensarling's staff. I'm sure that we will work well together.

I recognize that you did not have to come to the Hill to participate in yesterday's meeting, but I appreciate that you did. Thank you. We started a productive conversation. I will continue this conversation with staff from the Litigation & Oversight and Legislative Affairs offices early next year. I hope to work with these teams to understand how best to craft document requests to ensure that the Committee receives all that it needs to fulfill its oversight responsibilities while minimizing the burden on Bureau staff.

I have included Catherine on this e-mail because I understand that she should be aware of any conversations between the Hill and Bureau leadership. I've also included Charlie, my counterpart on the majority staff.

Thank you again for participating in yesterday's meeting.

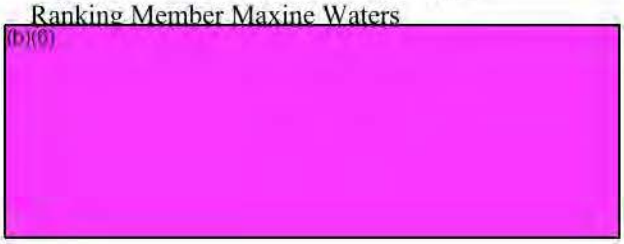

Best regards,

Kevin Burris | Chief Oversight Counsel

Kirsten,

It was great meeting you last night! I know things are probably crazy for you right now with a new Director, but would love to sit down with you at some point if you have a chance and just chat about different priorities. Happy to come to your neck of the woods or if you ever on the hill let me know. No rush, just wanted to reach out and connect.

Thanks!

Absolutely!

This may be a long shot, but is the Director available for a meeting with Tom next week? Now that we're back in session, our Friday morning is wide open.

Let me know and hope you're doing well!

Hi Emily Ann,

Hope you are doing well! I was recently up on the Hill with Director Kraninger and I ran into Congresswoman Wagner. We discussed getting drinks or dinner on the books and she asked me to follow up with you. I've cc'd Evan, Kathy's scheduler, to see if you guys can help us find something that works (in the near term, if possible). Thanks in advance!

Good morning,

I hope this email finds you well. I am contacting you on behalf of Director Kraninger at the CFPB. The Director asked me to reach out in order to request a meeting with Congresswoman Wagner so she could have an opportunity to introduce herself. Does your boss have any availability over the next few weeks?

We are happy to work around your schedule – perhaps you could provide a couple times that work on your end and we could go from there.

I really appreciate your help and time with this and look forward to hearing back from you.
